The Massachusetts Right to Repair Coalition has been running a high profile radio campaign in support of S. 2268, the Massachusetts Right to Repair legislation currently before the Senate. In the past few weeks, the Coalition's ads have been supplemented by new ads featuring Barry Steinberg of Direct Tire and Paul Sullivan of Sullivan Tire.

We're also happy to report that Paul Sullivan will be teaming up with Barry and AAA's Car Doctor, John Paul to make the Right to Repair Case.

There is nothing more effective than having reputable independent repairers like Barry and Paul deliver our important message on behalf of consumers and all independent repair shop owners. A big thanks to both Barry and Paul!

And remember, the Senate needs to hear your voice. If you haven't already, please take the time to pick up the phone and call your Senator (see list below). While our radio campaign is important, even more critical is each Senator hearing from business owners and constituents in their district.

The car manufacturers are doing everything they can to kill this bill. They're coming after your customers, and trying to control where consumers get their cars fixed. Take a listen to our new "Sully" ad, running on WBZ 1030 and the WEEI network, and it's all you need to know.

Please, Call Your Senator Tell Them the Right to Repair Bill Is Important to You!
